SPENCERIAN

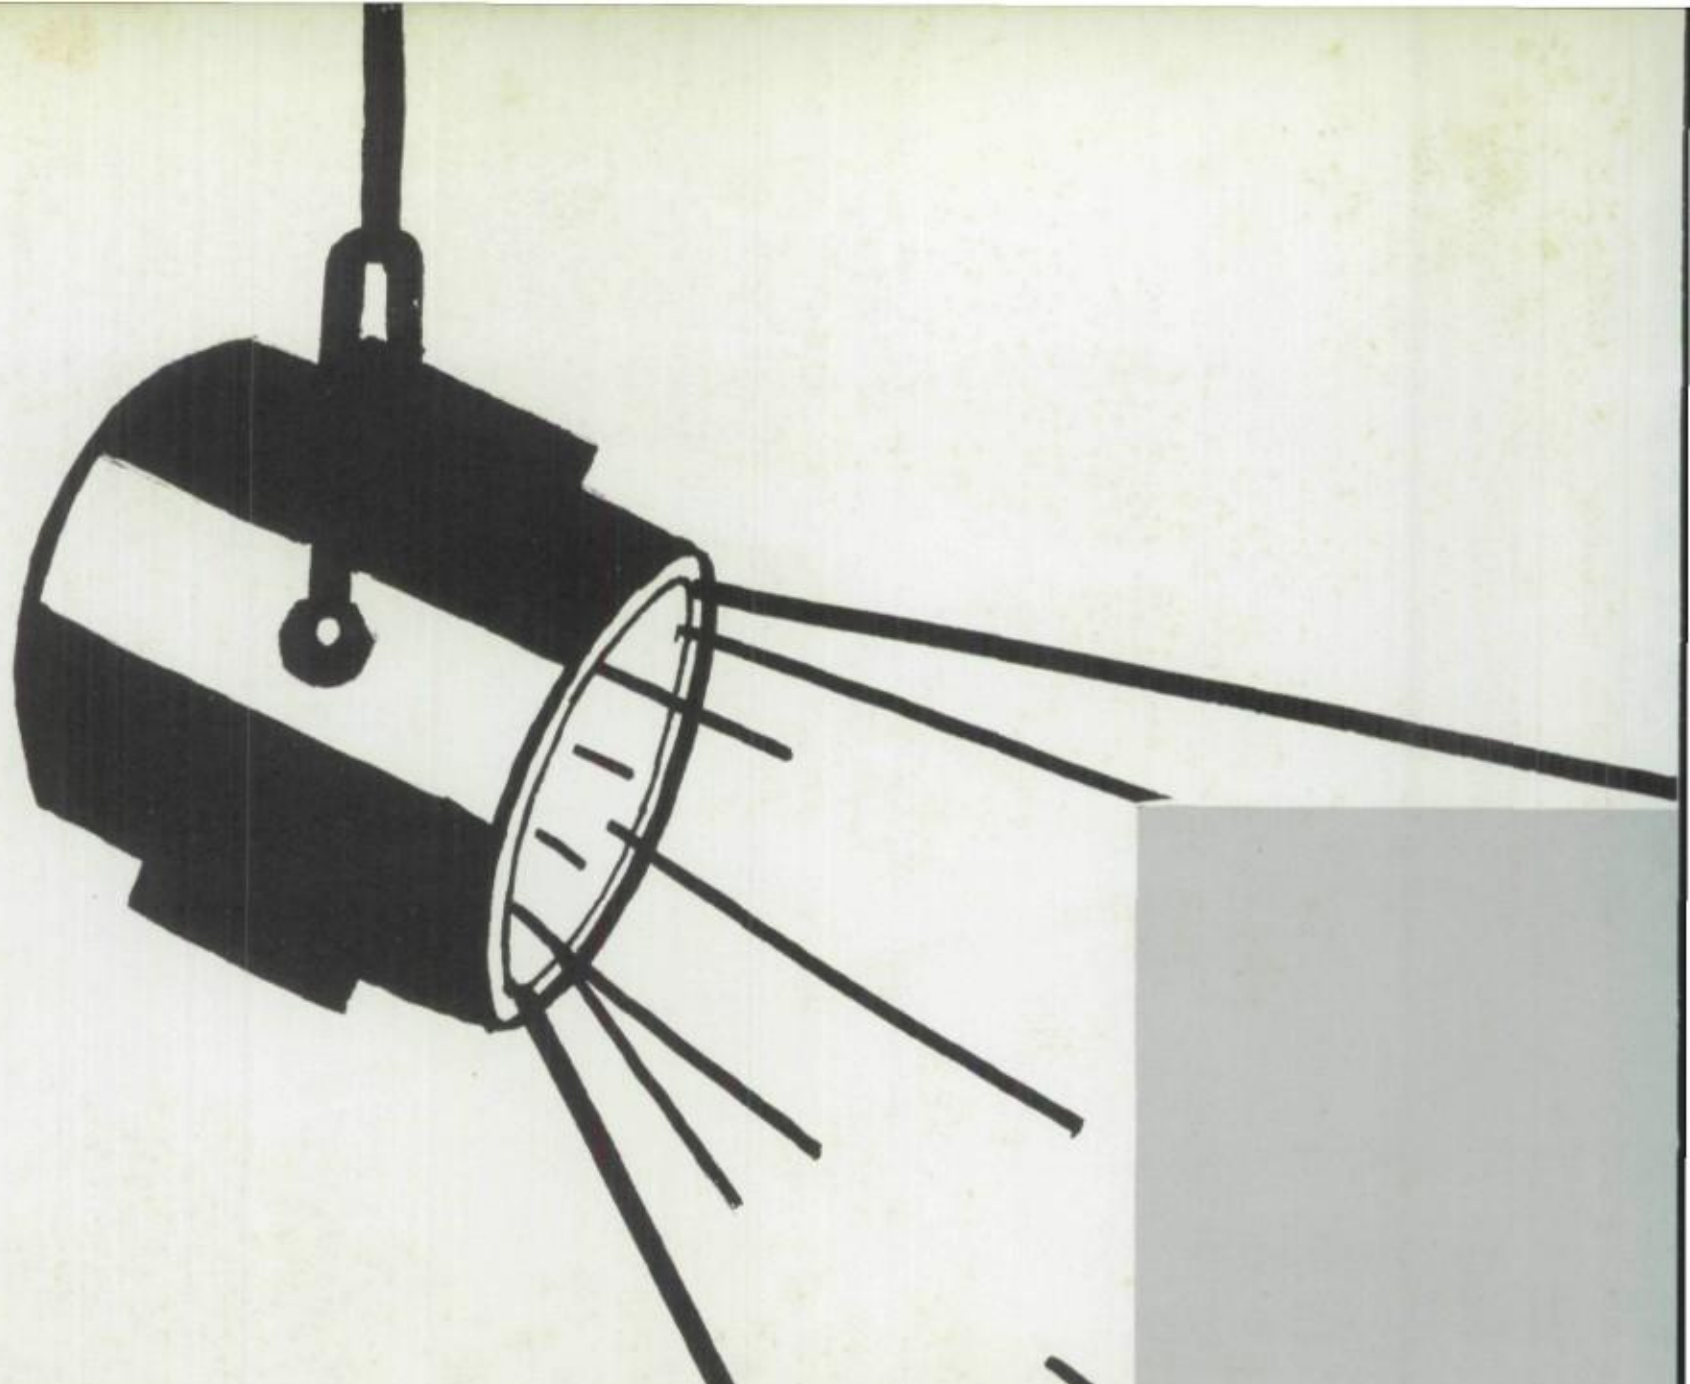
SPENCER HIGH SCHOOL

SPENCER, INDIANA



SPOTLIGHT ON SHS

So many things make up a good school . . . the people who "live" in it, the activities, the spirit, and even the problems. Spencerians, working and playing together, have developed stronger school spirit and better understanding of the school and of each other. To spotlight all the most important activities would be impossible because everything is important. But some things about our school life will be remembered more than others and those things are the ones that were highlighted in 1958-1959.

GALA EVENTS HIGHLIGHT OUR

The faculty and students enjoy a pleasant meal served at the De Pauw University Union Building.

Steve Parrish and Betty Jo McFarren, king and queen of the Junior-Senior Prom, are being congratulated by John Ritter, president of the Junior class.

Preceding the dance at the Junior-Senior Prom, the Sparkletones entertained by singing the opening and farewell numbers.

Dim lights, a colored fountain, and the soft music of the "Monitors" all added to make the Junior-Senior Prom a success.

SCHOOL AND SOCIAL LIFE

MAY DAY

Above: Doris Horn, Glenda Naanes, Sherry Johnson, Mary Gates, Diana May, Connie Gray, Carolyn Summerlot, Judy Winders, Irma Williams, and Sandra Bruce.

A big event—Nancy Bruce and Jeff Kinney, last year's king and queen of basketball, crown Wilma Johnson and Eddie Winders the new king and queen for 1958-59.

FUN PLUS WORK EQUALS

"Thank goodness there is only one rough initiation a year." This was a familiar saying heard among the G.A.A. initiates.

Mrs. Hoppe, Senior class sponsor and English teacher, escorted some Senior students to Indiana University. There they were shown different sections of I. U. in which they were interested.

EXTRA! EXTRA!
These familiar words are heard each Thursday as Janet Wray makes her weekly rounds selling school news.

A TYPICAL SCHOOL DAY

Mr. Spangler's government class listens as Emma Hutcherson gives a report on Current Events.

After-school work is not always limited to students. Shown here are Renos Spangler and student teacher, Paul Butler, as they discuss the past events of the day.

Morgan Drescher Jr., journalism teacher, watches as Janet Wray shows other journalism students the art of proofreading.

LANGUAGE USAGE IS IMPORTANT

English can be fun. Lois Galimore proves this by keeping her Senior English class in hysterics.

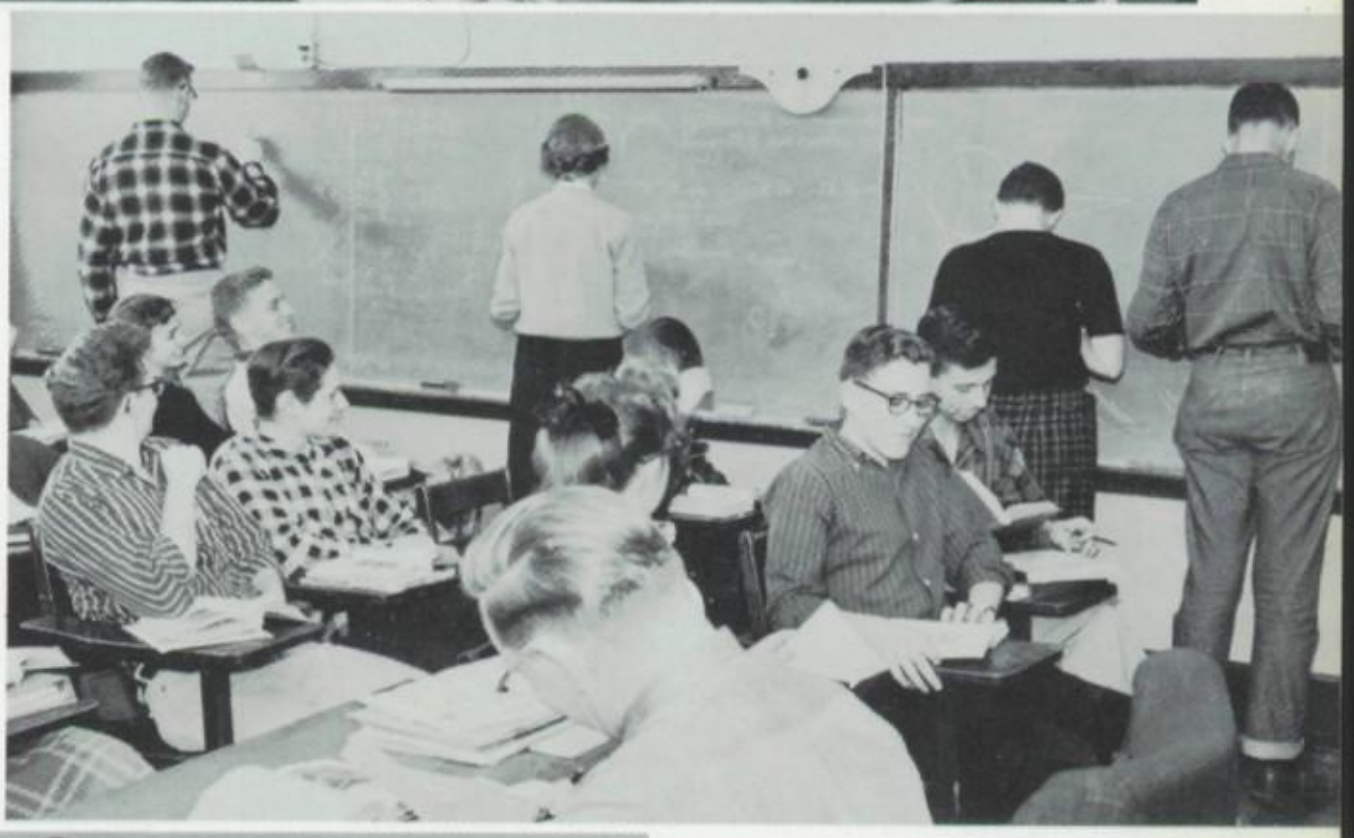
Dave Stannard and Jim McCann are admiring the clever work of Mrs. Hight's art class.

IN ALL FIELDS

Students aid Mr. Dyar with an experiment in chemistry.



"Gee-I'm-a-tree!" Geometry students look like they are out on a limb trying to prove one of Mr. Appleby's theorems.

TALENT AND SKILL ARE NEEDED

Miss Modesitt, student teacher, demonstrates a sewing technique to girls from Mrs. Kinney's Home Economics class.

The high school chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Perry, added much emphasis to the true meaning of Christmas by singing five religious numbers in the Christmas Program.

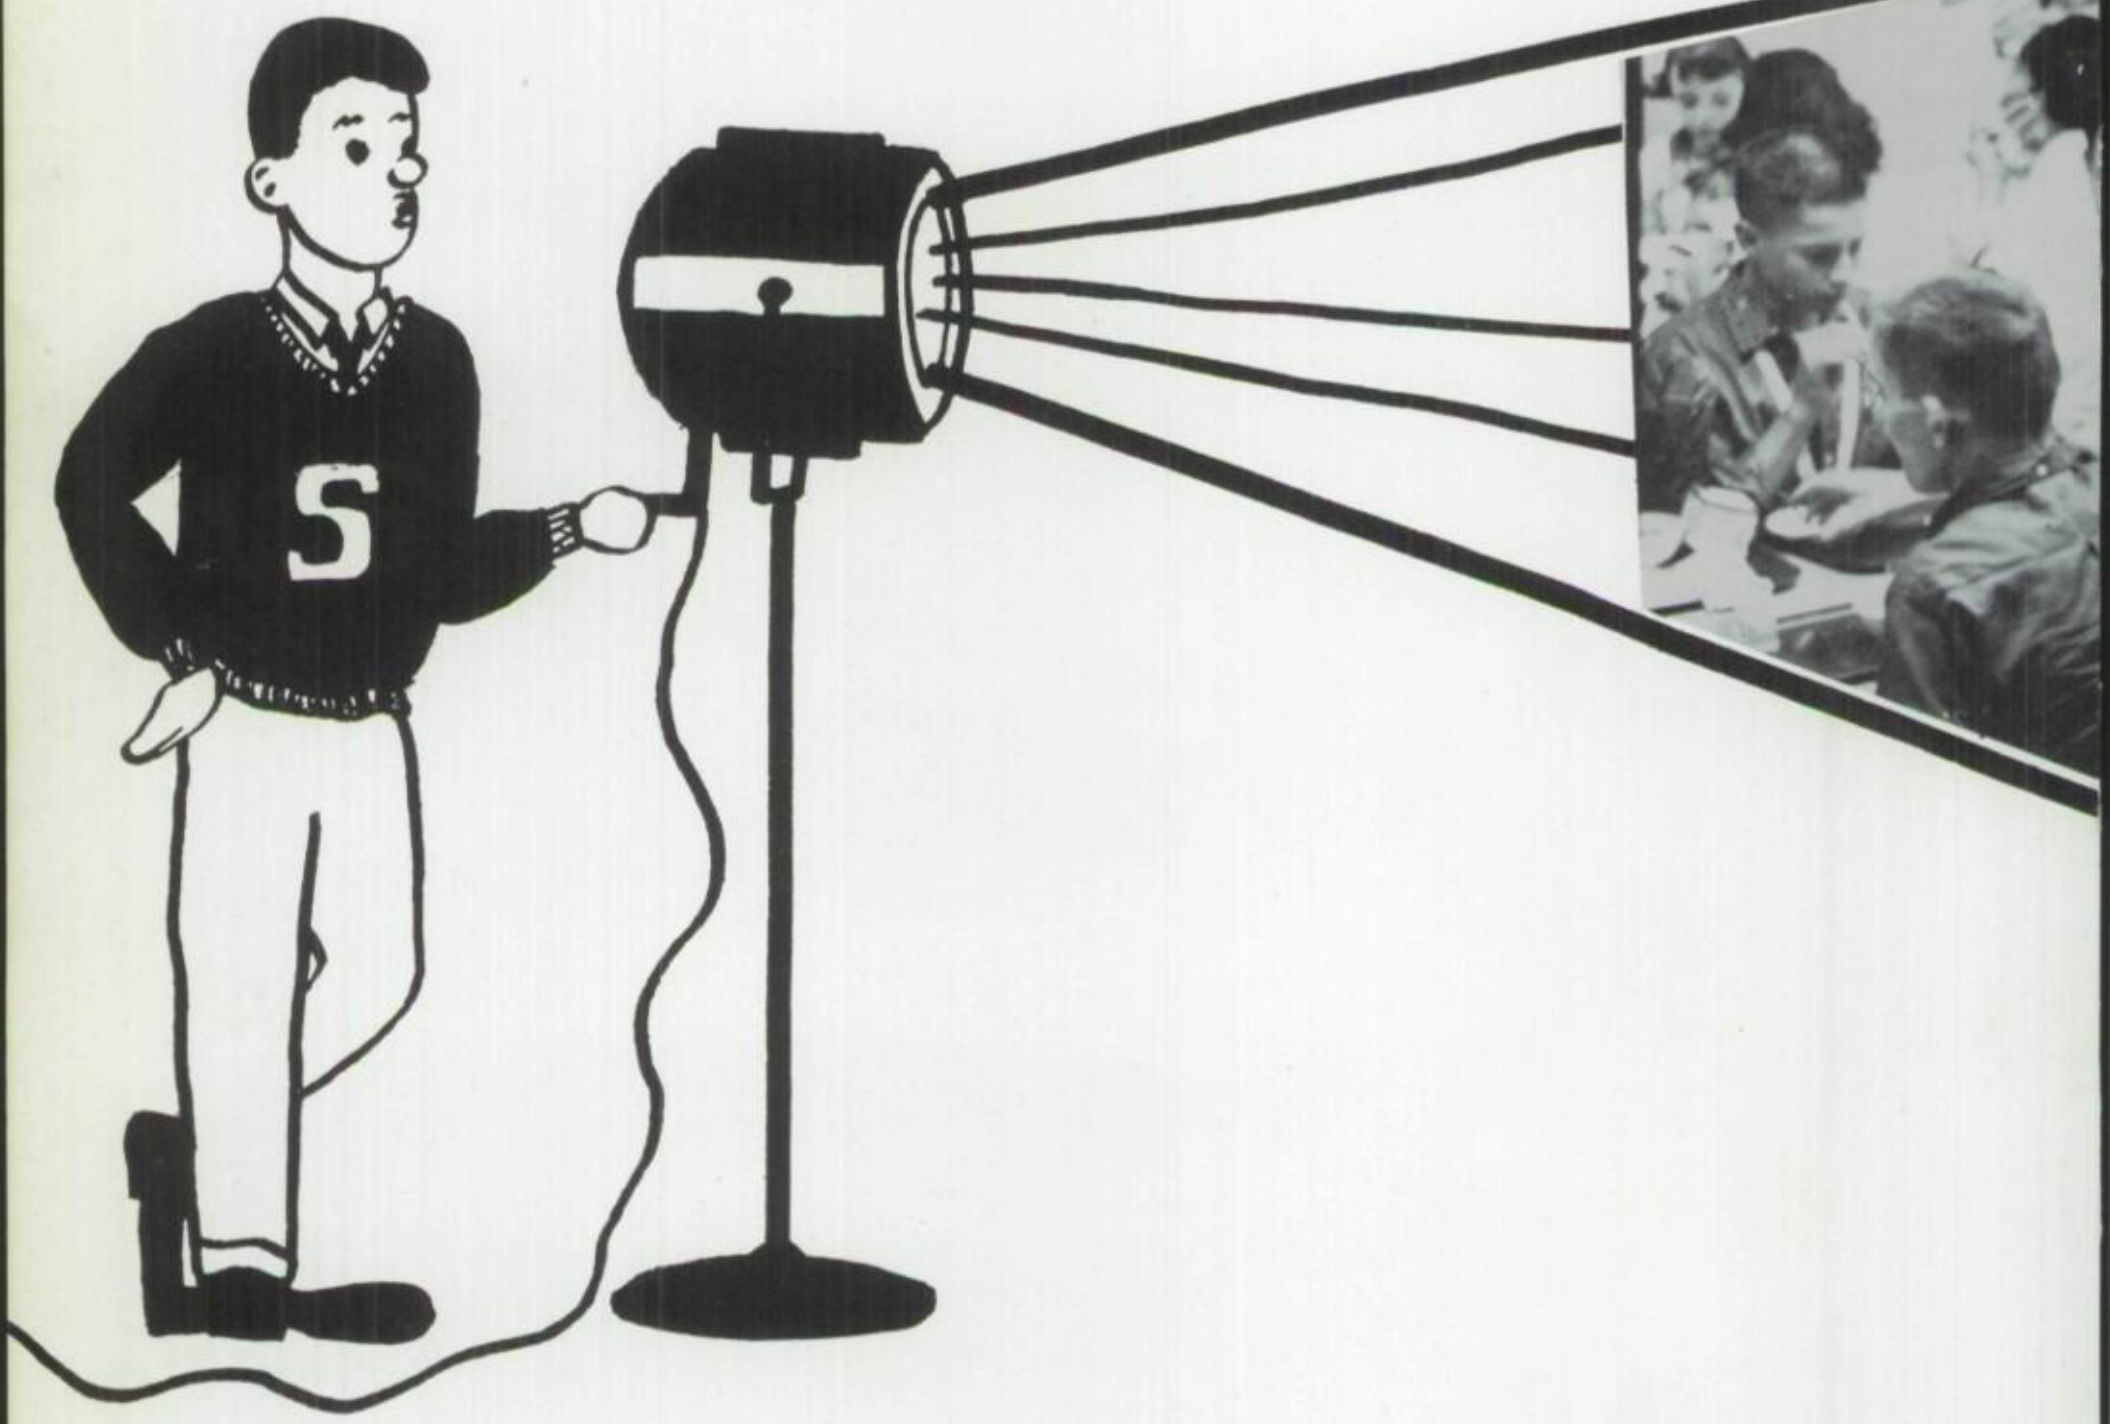
Dave Stannard and Jim McCann are admiring the clever work of Mrs. Hight's art class.

FOR THE FUTURE

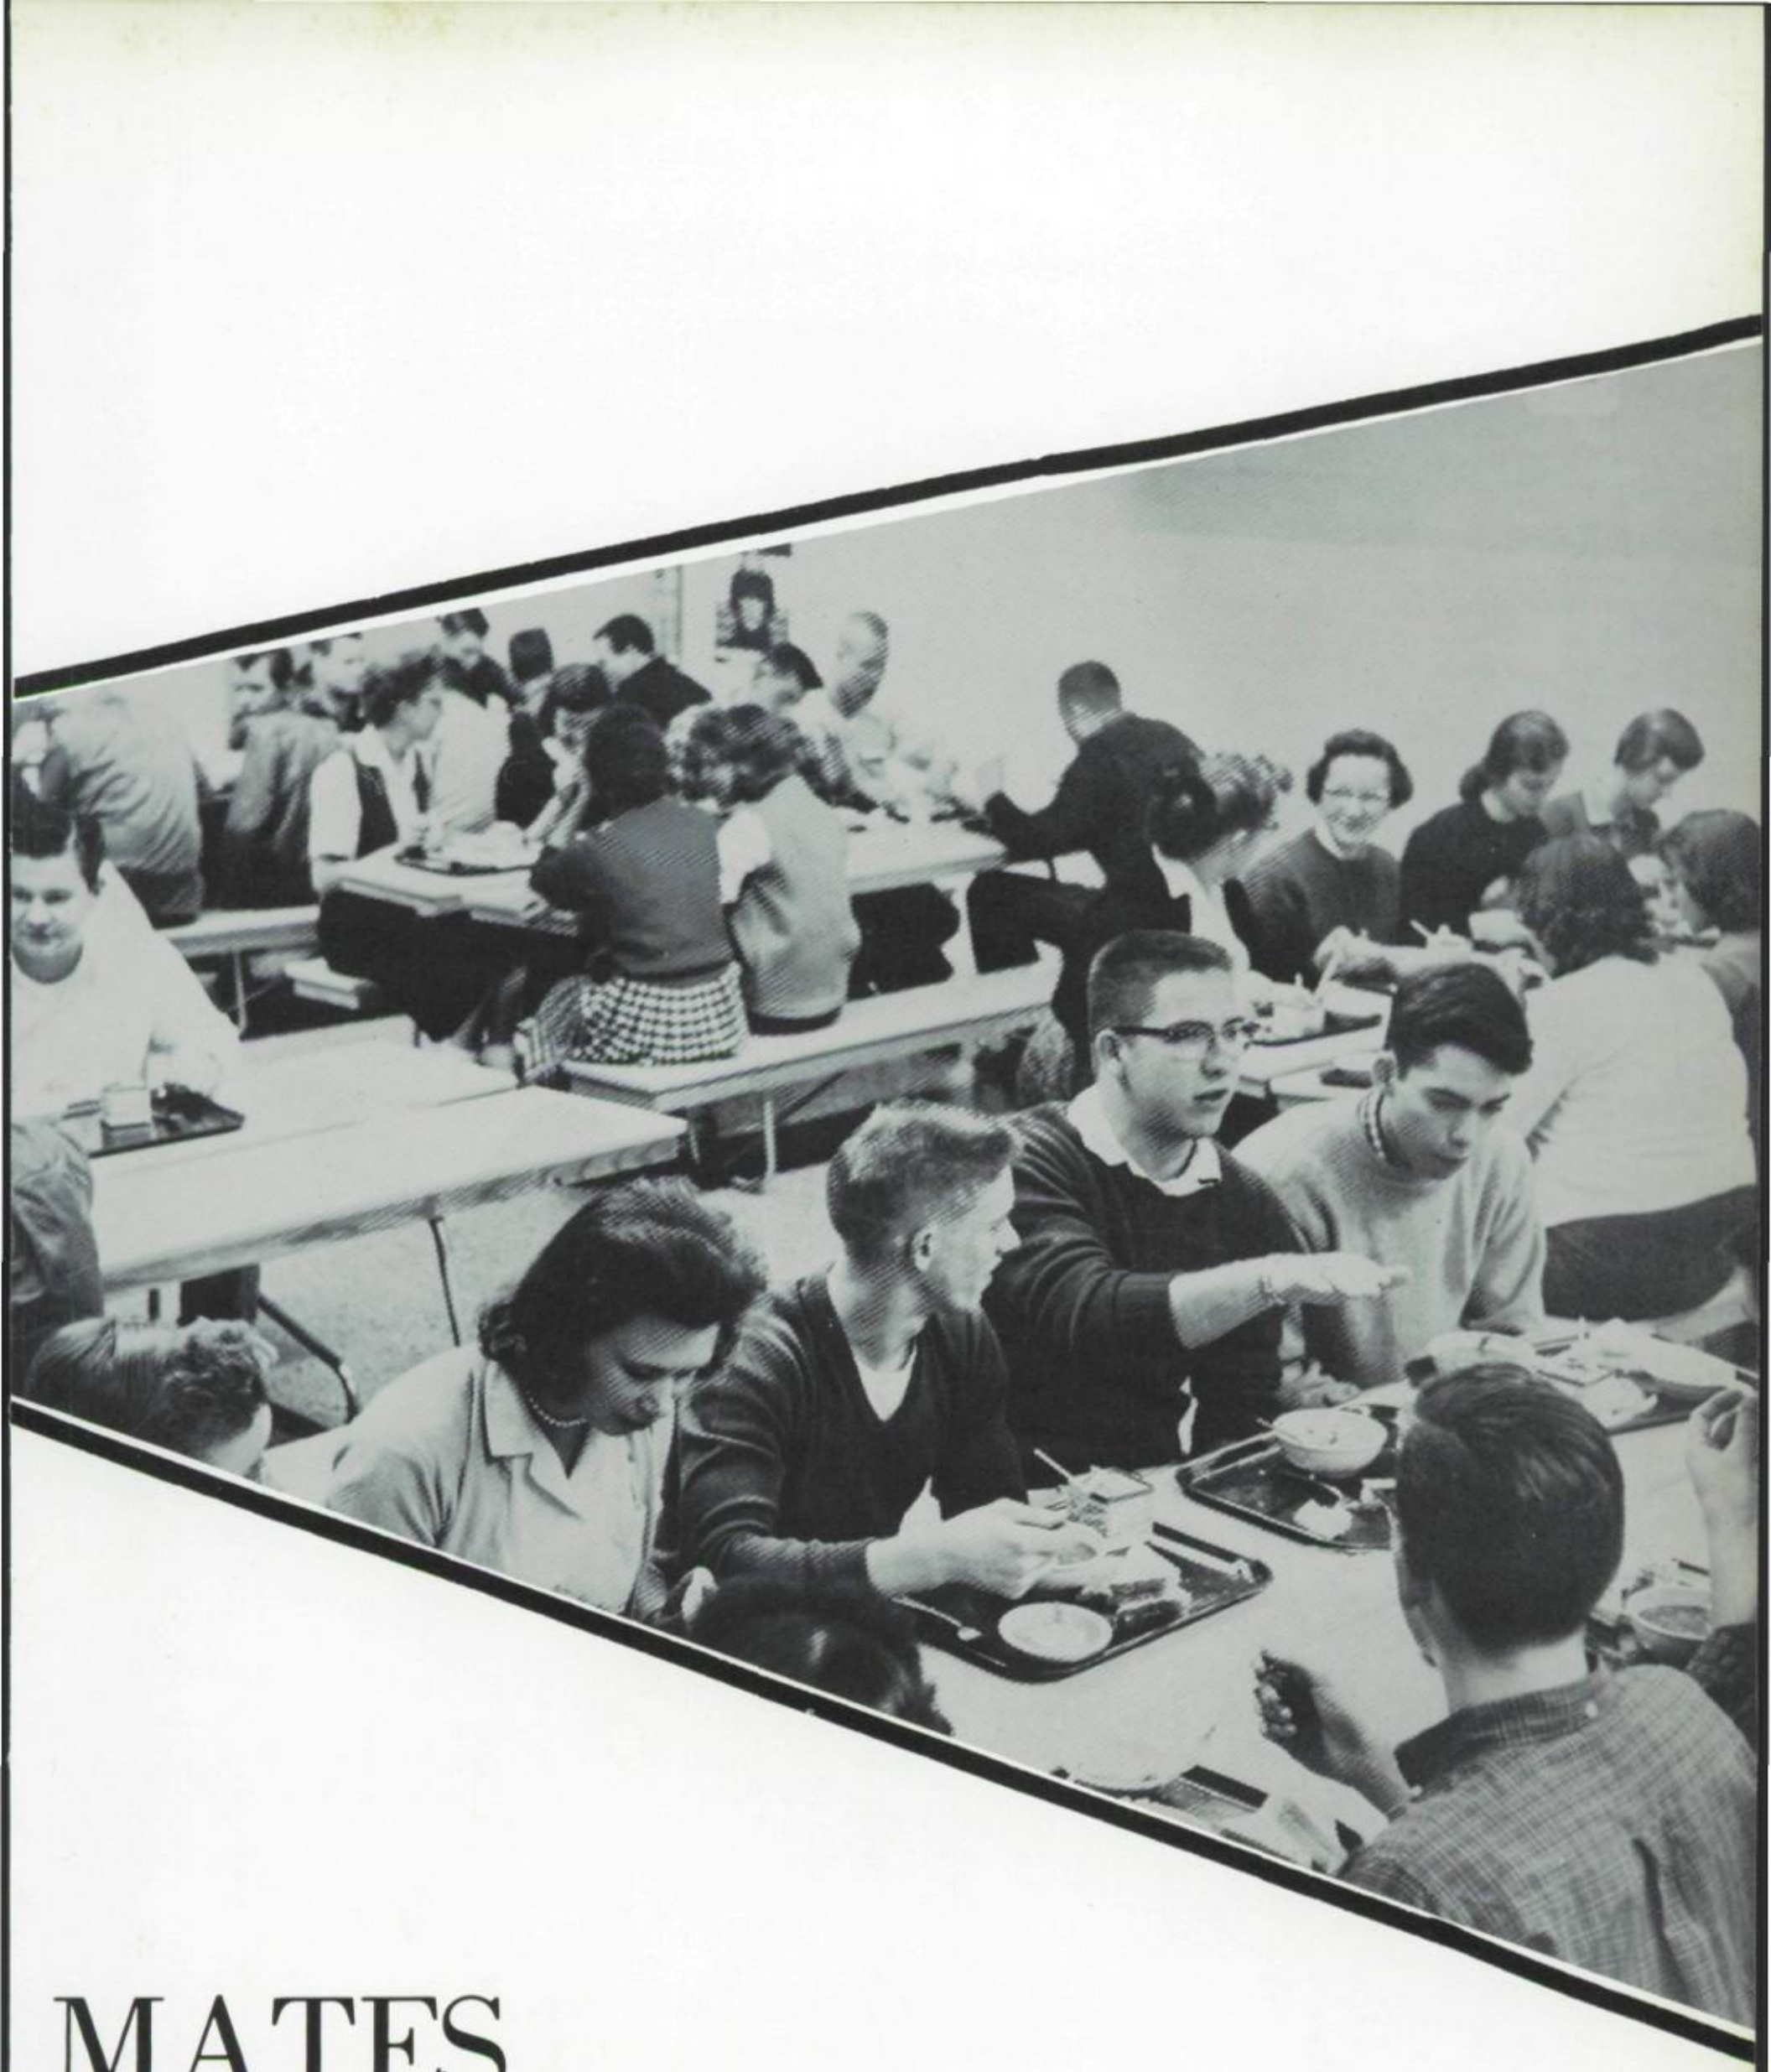
Sophomore Reggie Johnson is shown here as he starts his weekly driving lesson.

Who knows? Some day these industrious boys may be building homes on the moon.

Learning to set up type are John Bailey and Mike Dearinger. This should be helpful to them in their not so distant future.



OUR CLASS



MATES

IT ISN'T THE END

A joyous but solemn event . . . Graduation.

Every Senior must look his best for graduation—at least Georganna Hawkins thinks so as she adjusts Jo Ann Brown's cap.

IT'S ONLY THE BEGINNING

New Orleans . . . Here we come!!! Senior class officers: Connie Shields, Secretary-Treasurer; John Ritter, Vice President; Ed Kirby, President; and Mr. Edwards, Principal, discuss plans for the five-day trip to New Orleans. History has been made . . . the class of '59 is not going to Chicago.

Marie Kinney presents Janey Wray with the Betty Crocker Homemaker-of-Tomorrow Award. This award is given by General Mills to the senior girl receiving the highest score on her test.

Ah! A buyer! Mary Elizabeth Appleby sells Renos Price a candy-bar at the senior candy stand.

Smiles now, frowns later, is the motto of many students as they grab their report cards.

DRAMATIC ENDEAVORS OF

SEATED: Martha Baumgartner, Connie Shields, Barbara Everett, Georganna Hawkins, Jo Ann Brown. STANDING: Carl Smith, Jim McCann, Dave Stannard, Ed Kirby, John Bailey.

Carl seemed amazed when he found out that his "little Charlie" was an eighteen-year-old girl. Throughout the play he became more and more shocked as his feelings toward "Charlie" began changing.

JUNIOR-SENIOR YEARS

"Penelope's" persistence in handing "Mrs. Parker" the marmalade seemingly amused everyone except her, for as she explicitly stated she "wanted the butter." —She never got it.

JoAnn Brown, typist; Jerry Rumple, Sport Editor; John Ritter, Art Editor; Brian Smith, Junior Editor; Martha Baumgartner, Co-Editor; Judy Burnett, Editor.

"Practice makes perfect," but certain people are glad they had only one yearbook to produce. The work was long and hard but well worth its while.

Gary Fulk and Dave Stannard kept Mary Elizabeth Appleby busy typing ads. More ads were sold this year than ever before.

STANDING: Donald Dean, James Vielhaber, Alice Wilson. SITTING: Carl Smith, Connie Shields, Georganna Hawkins, Peggy Cunningham.

These innocent people soon learned that "bleeding in the gutter," and "dead-lines" are not lines from a mystery novel but journalism terms.

Spencer cops get thirsty too! Ann McClure happily pours a coke, for it will mean another dime in the Junior treasury.

AND PROVIDE FOR US

There is a great deal of work involved when preparing meals for approximately 700 hungry students. The cooks spend many hours in the kitchen of the school cafeteria.

At left Mrs. Herbert Brown, head cook, supervises the preparation of meals.

Custodians Boyd Mitten, Clarence Harris, Harley Frye, and Ralph Trump maintain the buildings and grounds.

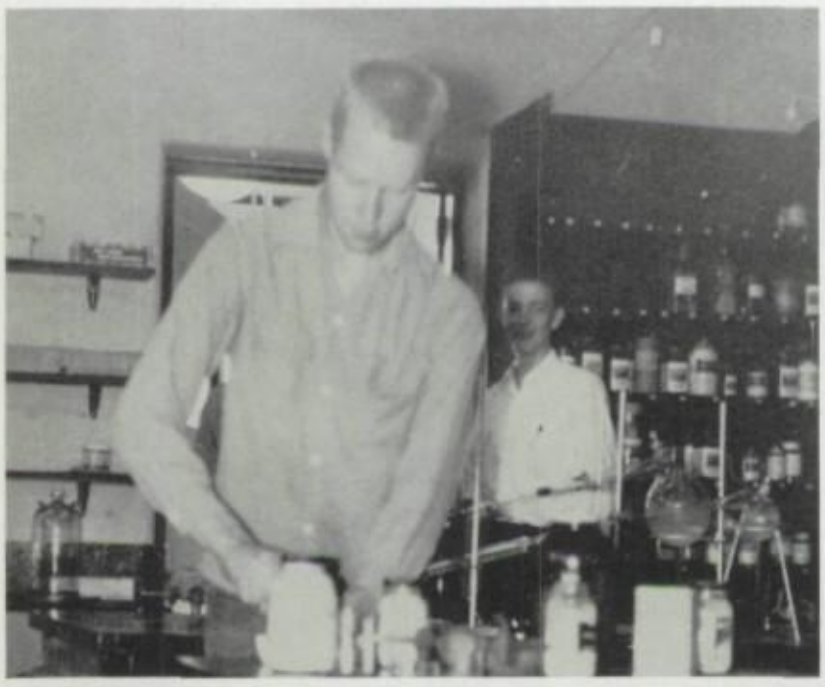
AUDIO-VISUAL CLUB

Under the supervision of Lloyd Hawkins, audio-visual members learn to operate the projectors, and assist the faculty in presenting films to the students.



SCIENCE CLUB

The Science Club, supervised by Amos Dyar, is a rather new organization in the Spencer Schools.

Its purpose is to stimulate an interest in the scientific department and stress the importance and need for young scientists in the world of today and tomorrow.

John Bailey is busily at work on his Science Club project.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

The Future Teachers of America is an organization which strives to further the knowledge of the teaching profession by enabling students to practice teaching in the elementary grades. To show appreciation, the cadet teachers had a party for the participating faculty members.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Student Council was organized to create and maintain student discipline. The council is composed of three representatives from each class and is sponsored by Herbert Edwards.

Under the supervision of Mr. Edwards, the organization adopted the Teen Code.

Throughout the years it has contributed many worthwhile projects.

HI-Y

DOMESTIC STABILITY

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

Under the supervision of Marie Kinney, the Future Homemakers strive to learn fundamentals of home management.

The newly elected members display a variety of pots and pans symbolizing the vocation of homemaking.

A few F.F.A. members are proudly watching their pig project develop.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The importance of agriculture is stressed by the organization called Future Farmers of America.

F.F.A. members experience "first hand" farming methods by visiting surrounding farms. They took part in a corn judging contest and attended the State Fair.

SFORZANDO MUSIC CLUB

Sforzando was organized several years ago for high school girls. Membership is limited to those who are musically inclined.

As the main project for this year a plaque was purchased by the club. It will be known as the Marilyn Matkins' Memorial Award. Each year an outstanding senior member will be chosen by the faculty to receive this award. Clayton Conrad, superintendent, will reveal the girl chosen at commencement exercises. As a token of the award her name will be engraved upon the plaque.

Throughout the year Sforzando members attend various musical presentations at Indiana University.

FRONT ROW: A. Wilson, J. Burnett, President; Barbara Schneider, Vice President; P. McFarren, Secretary; G. Hawkins, Treasurer; S. Freeman, H. Martin, M. Appleby. SECOND ROW: P. Cunningham, M. Baumgartner, S. Gray, K. Franklin, J. Coffey, C. Franklin, L. Langford. THIRD ROW: D. Schooling, M. Weaver, K. Cantwell, C. Shields, D. Crites, L. Corder, M. Goldberg, J. Wood.

Scholarship, Leadership, High Character, and Service are the prerequisites for membership in this organization. At an impressive ceremony every spring the new members and officers are inducted into the club. Those who led the club through this successful year were: Gary Fulk, President; JoAnn Brown, Vice President; Judith Burnett, Secretary-Treasurer. Miss Galimore and Mr. Edwards gave the club valuable assistance.

TALENTS AND SKILLS

G.A.A.

The Girls' Athletic Association, under Miss Wilson's guidance, has had several money-making projects this year. A few examples are: selling pickles at ballgames, sponsoring dances, and selling stuffed animals. These were all successful and added several dollars to the treasury.

ART CLUB

The art club, under Mrs. Hight's direction, contributes many artistic decorations in correlation with the different holidays.

COMMUNICATIONS THROUGH WORDS

SEATED: Jerry Tennant, Bernard Smith, Rita Sanburn. STANDING: Eddie Cramer, Stanley Henson, Leonard Abrams, Barbara Ranard, Patricia Robertson, Mary Terrell.

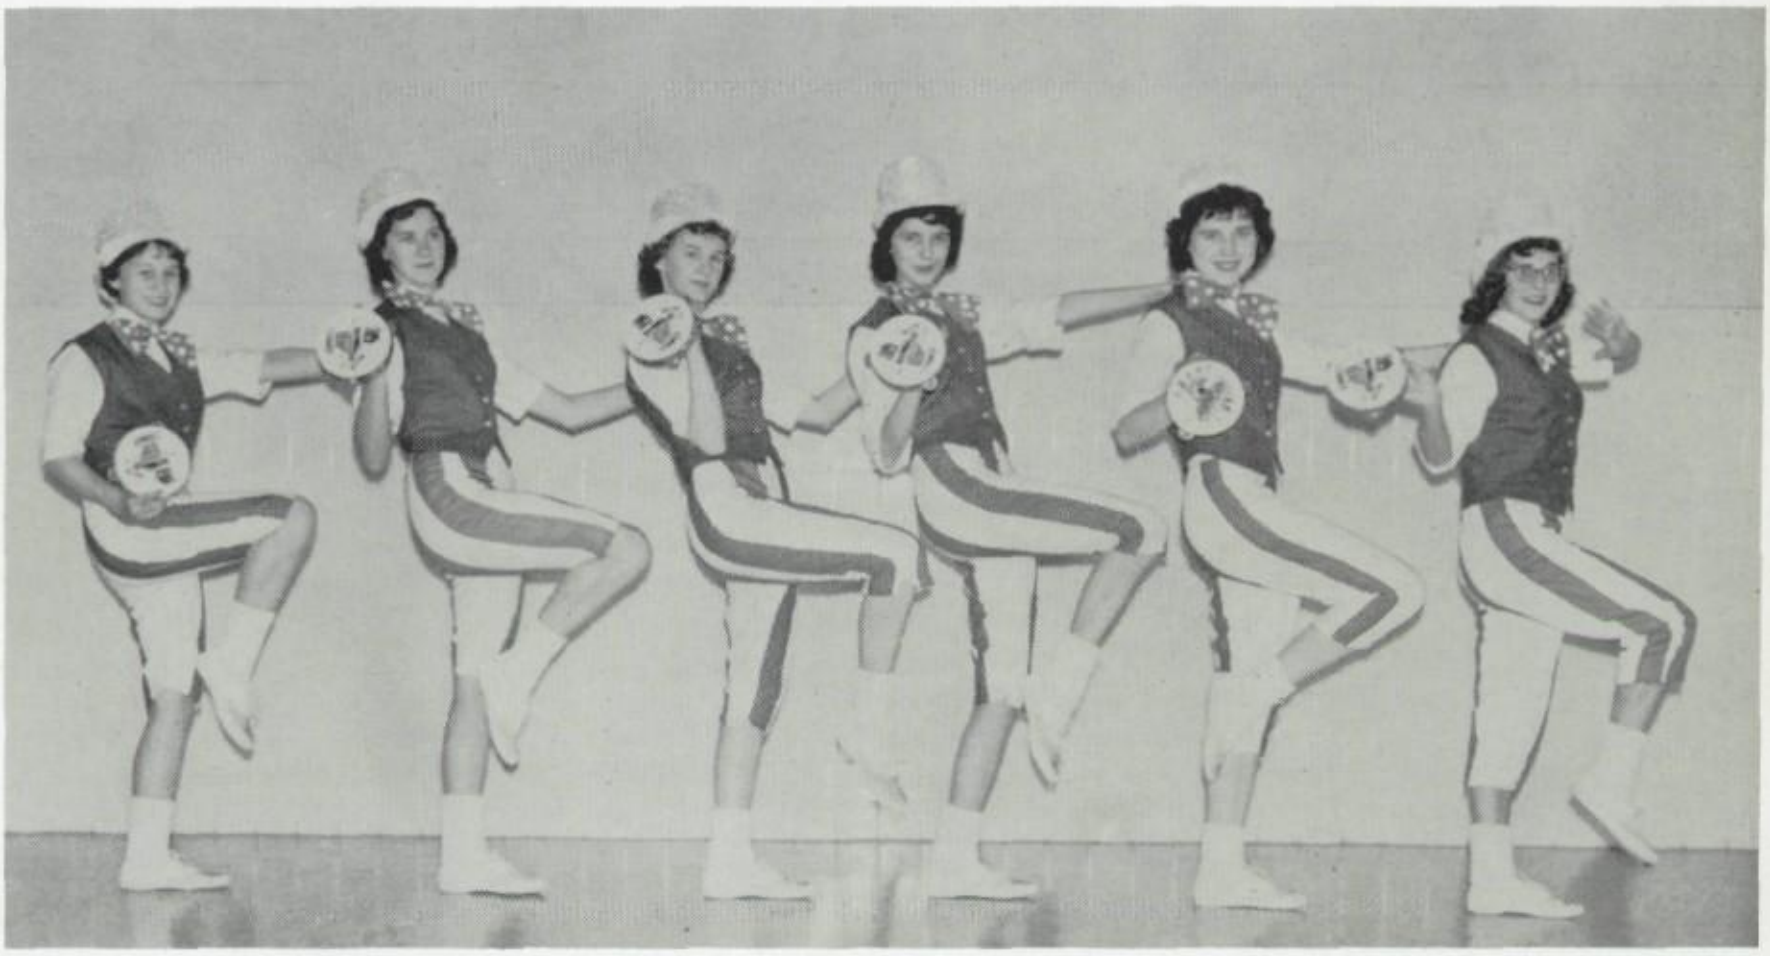
"Testing, testing, this is station KOPS signing on for your noon-time recreation." These familiar words are heard each day as KOPS starts their D. J. show.

For the past two years, junior high and high school students have given their requests and danced to their favorite records. Pat Boone, Elvis Presley, and Ricky Nelson were among this year's most popular singers, and the Mexican Hat Rock was the latest dance to invade Spencer High.

The news staff has the responsibility of editing and typing news for the school page and meeting the publishing deadlines. This is not a simple task as Janet Wray, editor, can readily assure you.

SEATED: Charlotte Sargeant, Helen Martin, Suzanne Gray, Alan Gentry. STANDING: Janet Wray, Editor; Mary Appleby, Jerry Nicholson, Emma Hutcherson.

AND MOTION



Madi Goldberg, Elizabeth Freeman, Rita Mills, Suzanne Gray, Bonnie Hines, Janet Wood.

The Val Jean Dancers presented fascinating half-time entertainment at the basketball games. They enacted everything from boogie woogie mice to rain-soaked store models in a rain medley.

In order to replenish the treasure the girls sold jewelry and performed for outside organizations. This money went to finance costumes.

Connie Shields, Georganna Hawkins, and Judy Burnett took spectators on a journey through cowboy land.

Being Seniors, these girls received award sweaters for their hard work. These sweaters are awarded to all senior Val Jean Dancers who have been associated with the organization two years.

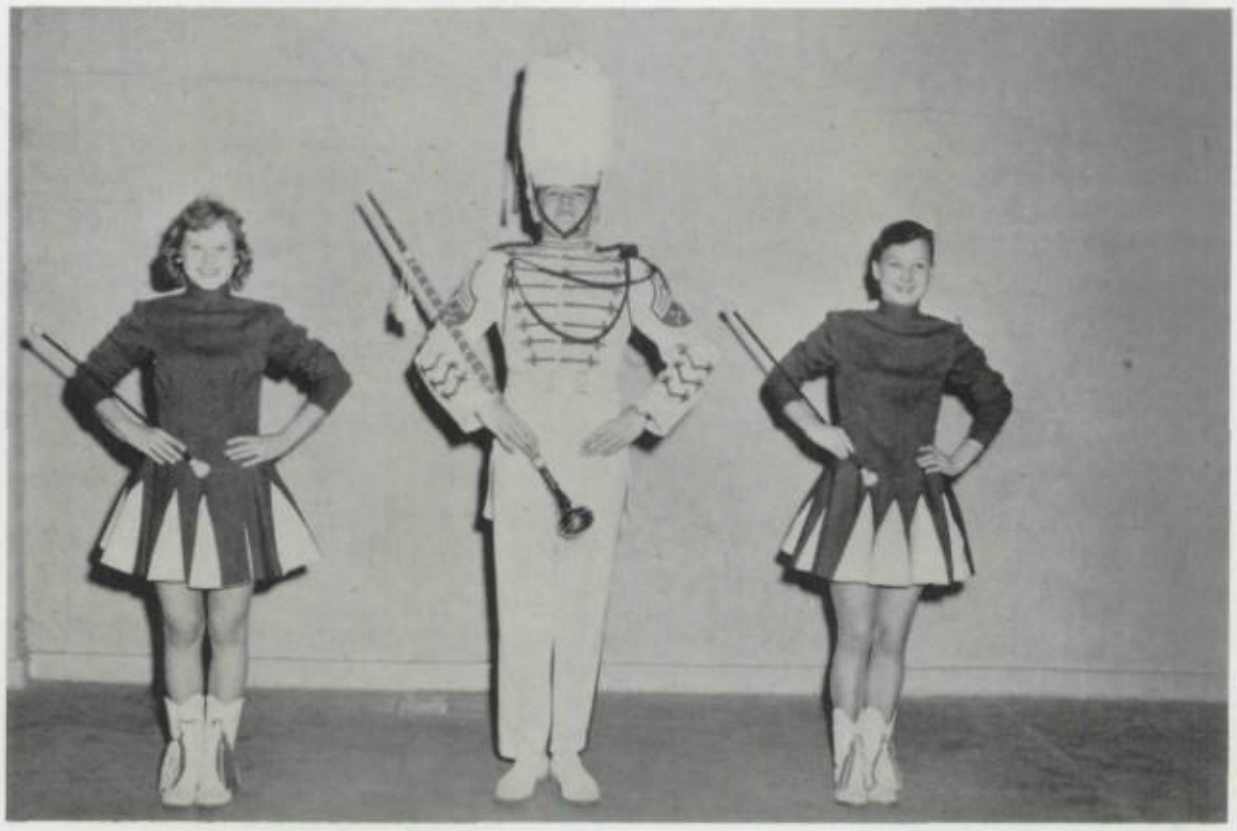
FRONT ROW: Brian Smith, Karen McIntosh, Kay Scutt, Mary Appleby. SECOND ROW: Kay Franklin, Charlotte Sargent, Sandy Freeman, Sharon Williams. THIRD ROW: Gary Fulk, Gary Brinson, Ronald Morley, Sidney Miller, Marilyn Weaver. FOURTH ROW: Martha Baumgartner, Jeanne Oberholtzer, Eugene Lawrence. FIFTH ROW: Mike Dearinger, Tom Franklin, Eddie Cramer, Roger Papadakos, Terry McMorran.

This year's band president, Gary Fulk, attended the District Solo and Ensemble Contest at Indiana University where he placed second. Other officers are: Jerry Nicholson, Vice President; James Vielhaber, Secretary-Treasurer; K. K. Kinney, Karen McIntosh, Gary Brinson, Terry MacMorran, Council Members.

FRONT ROW: Donna Baughn, Ann McClure, Jim Vielhaber, Jack Newsom. SECOND ROW: Billy Franklin, Gary Fiscus, Jane Skinner, Phillip Allen, Jerrilyn Coffey. THIRD ROW: Darwin Kinney, John Cantwell, Jon Appleby, K. K. Kinney. FOURTH ROW: John Bailey, Janet Long, Carolyn Franklin, Jerry Nicholson. FIFTH ROW: Sonia Kandel, Barry Manzey.

The band, under the direction of Morgan Drescher, Jr., has many activities during the year. They march at the Ellettsville Fall Festival and attend Band Day at Depauw University, and present half-time entertainment at the basketball games.

PRACTICE OF GOOD MUSIC



Marilyn Weaver, John Cantwell, and Donna Baughn lead the band in high stepping maneuvers.

This is band practice! It looks like a mass of confusion, but director Mr. Drescher always presented interesting entertainment.

AND STEADY RHYTHM

For the past three years the Band Boosters have awarded sweaters to the senior members who have played in the senior band at least three years.

RESULT IN PERFECT

The Senior Sextette, better known as the "Sparkletones," was started in 1955. They have sung for clubs, teas, Christmas programs, talent contests, Commencement, and Baccalaureate exercises.

HARMONY AND PRIDE

The Sweet Owen Belles, formerly known as the Sophomore Sextette, was organized in 1958. Throughout the year they were kept busy with contests, benefits and programs at school.

FRONT ROW: Janet Wood, Rita Matkins. MIDDLE ROW: Charlotte Sargent, Nancy Lewis, Nedra Wallace. TOP: Sandra Freeman.

Organized in 1956 the Junior Sextette has sung for many school and social functions.

ELEMENTARY ADVISORS

MR. WADE, elementary principal, spends many strenuous hours in his office working out daily problems that arise in connection with his job.

Sore throats, skinned knees, and tummy aches are just a few of the pains BETTY WEIDNER, nurse, tries to remedy.

Lieutenant CHARLES HARBISON, director of safety education, demonstrates safe driving technique plus the use of the stop light.

We, the Seniors of 1959, leave the halls of Spencer with smiles of achievement.

As the world demands more and more of its graduates, the Seniors of 1959 realize the responsibilities that lie ahead. The spotlight focuses on the past year, bringing back memories, and then on to the future. What lies in store for the class of '59? That there will be moments of trouble, deep sorrow and great happiness, we know. Life is strange, and sometimes the spotlight seems dim — the way uncertain. Then through the haze, there appears a thin glimmer of light which becomes larger and larger until the pathway is clear again.

We do the difficult immediately, the impossible takes a little longer!

FAREWELL, SPENCER HIGH
